

Speaker's Biography

Dr Pearline TEO

Global Clinical Research Manager
Dornier MedTech

Dr. Pearline Teo has a background in Immunology and Molecular Biology. After obtaining her PhD at Stanford University, she was a Research Fellow at ASTAR Singapore.

In 2012, Dr. Teo received the Singapore-Stanford Biodesign Fellowship. Since then, she has been working in the medical device industry, from clinical needs assessment, to product development, and now clinical research.

Dr. Teo is currently Global Clinical Research Manager at Dornier MedTech. At Dornier, she develops and executes clinical trial strategy for low-intensity shockwave therapy.